Save your time, don't listen to a word she says, unless you want to go to jail and lose your stuff

02 Bill Pinkerton • Reply to Josh Spence

Josh Spence , you tried and experienced that? Or are you in the court cabal?

03 Josh Spence • Reply to Bill Pinkerton

Bill Pinkerton sometimes people think they are breaking new ground when really they are just bastardizing something others have already considered and/or attempted, and found to be incorrect.

Do as you wish. It's your funeral

Josh Spence it goes to show that you don't know your rights. You don't know banking contract law, or else your answer would be different. I showed up in court for traffic violations and challenged jurisdiction. It doesn't matter guilty, or not, Once you challenge jurisdiction, the court cannot proceed. Until jurisdiction is proven

Most don't understand that it has nothing to do with the per. Se crime committed, it's all banking and contract law

This is "Lose The Name" propaganda jargon. A lot of us have been doing this a lot longer than the majority of new people trying to recreate new processes with old information charging money to unjustly enrich and build their own lives. This video, with all due respect is giving no remedy, no truth, nothing new, nothing ground breaking, just people that are new, trying to charge people for videos like this to build their vision and agenda for their own lives. People, do yourselves and each other a favor and think for yourselves and build your own path and journey because I promise you NONE of these self proclaimed gurus or enlightened ones who charge you FRN's for your time and their regurgitated info are looking out for you or "The people" before themselves and their agenda of their own lives ever!

08 Paula Cotham • Reply to Corey Banks

Corey Banks would you consider one that doesn't charge a penny? Brandon Joe Williams gives his way of remedy away for free. I'm considering it but I will study until I know it backwards and forwards before I act. There is another content creator I'm considering, One Nation. $20 a month. Spend more on Netflix than that and they give you access to all kinds of things, teaching the process of all of the corporate world and not "losing" the name, but using the system and name, the way it was designed, to teach people how to build corporations and protect assets. Anyways, it's a new chapter for me and I'm hoping to find out more than I already have so far.

Do you have any suggestions for me to start?

09 Corey Banks • Reply to Paula Cotham

Paula Cotham Absolutely not! One stupdd fck aka Brandon Williams is one of the worst of the worst! He may not charge for all his material but he has a mock law firm website acting like a big shot and from what I've heard screwed people over in the 6 digits. Take everything people say with a grain of salt and do your own re-search on everything. Anyone telling you that they will do a full process or trust for you for a flat fee RUN and BLOCK them immediately! It doesn't exist and the reality is that everybody claims to be all about sovereignty, freedom and unity and old school Republic values but when it comes down to it, they just look to prey on people not as far as they are in their journey, claim that they have the truth, answers or remedy and wanna just level up by selling false hope, fear, doom, scarcity of time, etc so they can get apartment buildings, more cars and money to flaunt in front of the PUBLIC like high class slaves! Everything the people in this world touch and get their hands on turns to stone and it's really a pathetic sad sight to watch over and over again, especially with how predictable it's become with these ! My approach has always been that the people and their labor, creations and knowledge are the true value so I've always offered knowledge and material I've come across or acquired as a bartering piece for others people's knowledge and material they've acquired on their journey but people really are zombies that love to play double agents in The Matrix and to be honest, it's making a lot of us good, knowledgeable and kindred spirits to withdraw from the world because people are rabid wolves only looking to help, feed thensleves and the circus they call their family and friends so it's not looking good and it's certainly not looking like we can really support and work together on things anymore unfortunately. Good luck though, private is a state of mind and a lifestyle, until you overstand that you'll be trapped forever like them.

But the fact that she actually responded after saying "I'm not answering any questions", tells me that she may not know what she's actually doing. To say you don't answer any questions by answering a question, can say a lot
